Sock monster

My socks! My socks!

I don't know where they are.

Red socks! Blue socks!

I'm looking near and far.

It's the monster, the monster, the monster

The monster in my room,

He loves to eat my socks!

Then he flies to the moon!

My socks! My socks!

Are they on the chair?

Green socks! Pink socks!

I'm looking everywhere.

My socks! My socks!

Are they in my shoe?

Black socks! White socks!

I don't know what to do!
