

Unit 8, Reading, exercise 2

Presenter: Readers' tips: three city beaches from around the world

Are you a beach person? Maybe you prefer city breaks? How about both? We asked our readers to tell us about their favourite city beaches.

Antalya, Turkey, Erçan Kesen

Erçan: When you first arrive in Antalya, you must walk around Kaleiçi, the old part of the city, have a snack in a café and enjoy the view of the mountains. After that, go to one of the two beaches. We're going to spend the summer on Konyaaltı beach. There's always somewhere to hang out because the beach is 7 km long. I think early evenings are the best time.

Presenter: San Sebastian, Spain, Ane Garmendia

Ane: Many people come to my city to try the amazing food. However, I love the three beaches. I learnt how to surf on Zurriola beach. La Concha beach is right in the middle of the city, but I like spending the afternoon with my friends on Ondarreta beach in the west of the city. It's a little quieter and I think you will love it.

Presenter: La Paz, Mexico, Luis Sánchez

Luis: There are nearly 500 beaches in Mexico, but one of the best is Balandra. It's near where I live in La Paz. In the city we have Malecón beach. You can go for a walk or a run, go shopping and have an ice-cream! I like Malecón, but I prefer Balandra. It's about 45 minutes away by car. I love it because the water is clear, and it's a wonderful place to look for marine animals.
